Competition

FOR ALL AGES

Make a

Marriott bird!

Norfolk County Council

Could you design a Marriott bird?

Create a new species of your very own?

It may be the lovely countryside, the wonderful animals or the interesting history that sparks your imagination. How you make your bird is up to you. You can sketch, paint or even sculpt your entry!

The only requirement is that your entry must be no bigger than an A4 sheet of paper and flat (so sculptures will have to be photographed). This competition is open to all ages and there are some great prizes to be won. In addition, the winner's names will appear in the Eastern Daily Press (EDP). So enjoy yourself on Marriott's Way and be inspired to enter this unique competition.

Following the route of two former railway lines, Marriott's Way is a 26 mile marked path running between the historic market town of Aylsham and the famous city of Norwich. Passing through many wildlife-rich habitats, it is a tranquil and secluded 'green corridor', available to everyone, all year round.

Competition Prizes

Under 12 years:

50 winners will each receive a RSPB Wildlife Explorers Organiser.

12 years and above:

10 winners will each receive a copy of the RSPB hard-back book 'Attracting Wildlife to your Garden'.

Please send your entries to:

Sharon Bland
Marriott's Way Competition 2009
Room 301, Planning and Transportation Department
County Hall, Martineau Lane
Norwich NR1 2SG

Please include your name, age, telephone number and address, including your postcode. Your entry must reach the judges by Friday 25th September 2009. The winners will be notified within 21 days of the closing date.

Good Luck!

This competition is brought to you by Norfolk County Council and Broadland District Council together with the RSPB.
